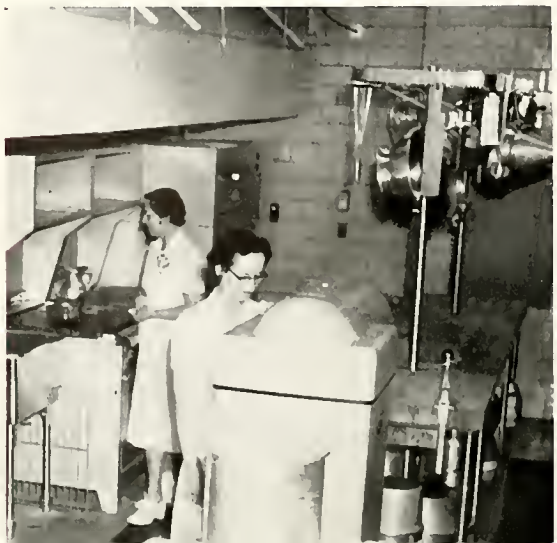
All the things we were

Looking at our past we review a succession of events; the memories of some are vivid and happy, bringing a smile to our faces; others are dim and unpleasant, usually discarded as quickly as they are brought to mind. Wondering how it all came about, we realize that our actions depended on the people and things around us and on other events which had come before. Step by step one led to another drawing us on to . . .

All the things we are

Today we are what yesterday has made us. Since we cannot change the past, we must turn our faces away and look toward the future, which we can change. Our present actions will affect the future as the past has affected the present. As all things we were have determined all the things we are, so all the things we are shall determine . . .



Our Facilities Grow

All the things we shall be

Our future—what will it be like? Will it turn out as we have planned, or will some happening throw our plans to the four winds? The only answer is a question mark. The future is unknown. Yet as we go about our daily tasks, so deeply engrossed in the present, we are setting a pattern which will carry over into the future. We are living today, not for yesterday, but for tomorrow.

Faculty

Leaving the past behind, the present has brought with it many changes. We have outgrown the one-room schoolhouse with the stern schoolmaster and his hickory stick. The casual, personal relationship between teacher and student today is an important factor on modern education. In appreciation of their efforts toward our education, we present the Faculty.

Superintendent

MR. BURTON STEPHAN

An official whom we seldom see, but who has a very important job, is our competent superintendent, Mr. Burton Stephan. Working with the school board, he must plan and decide any changes that are to be made for the progress of the Huntington School system. Our efficient new edition is a result of Mr. Stephan's work.

Administration Sets the Pace

Principal

MR. HAROLD JOHNSON

The tall gentleman, whom we often see strolling through the halls, is our principal, Mr. Harold Johnson. Along with his many duties, it is his responsibility to oversee all extra-curricular activities; this year he has also found time to teach a class in Economics. Little do any of us realize the trials and tribulations of the principal of Huntington High School.

School Board

The School Board is appointed for a term of three years by the City Council. They plan for the school finances and supervise the hiring of teachers. They also aid our superintendent in solving problems and making the many decisions of our school system. The members are: left to right, Mr. Dale Updike, Mrs. Walter Rusk, Mr. Lawrence Layman.

Secretaries

Miss Fredith Langley, Miss Betty Grossman, and Miss Lou Ann Parker serve as very efficient secretaries to our school officials. Miss Langley can be found in the Superintendent's Office, while Betty and Lou Ann work at the counter in the High School Office. Our thanks go to them for running the business departments of the two offices in such a smooth manner. We also appreciate the fact that they are always willing and ready to assist us in the many questions and problems that come up in our daily school life.

MRS. HELEN SAYLOR (Deceased)

The tragic death of Mrs. Saylor in March of this year stunned students and faculty alike. Words are inadequate to express her relationship with her students and fellow teachers. Quite simply, she exemplified the highest type of Christian living and professional teaching. Her many years of service to the Huntington schools and community will long be remembered.

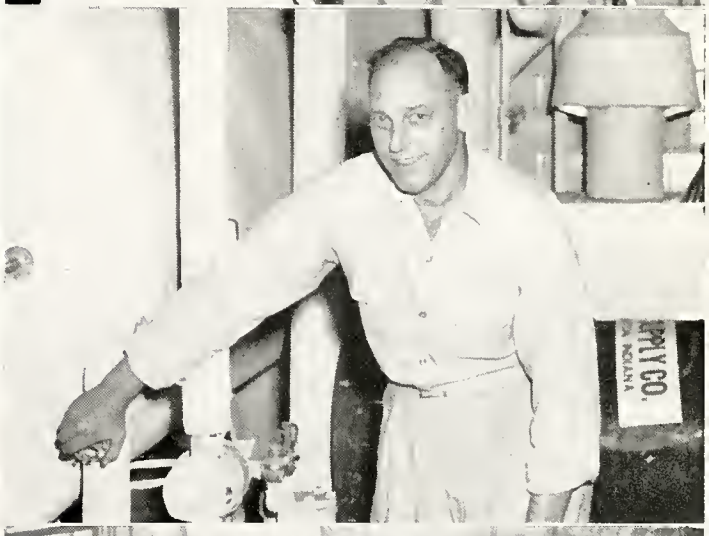
Pride In A Job Well Done

HOWARD SWEARER

Newest member of the maintenance staff, Howard has assignments including the dusting and cleaning of the halls, shops, offices, lavatories, and classrooms. Window washing, temperature regulation, and school grounds also fall into this category. Howard is on duty at the Community Gymnasium during tournaments to assist with the ushering assignments.

CHARLES THOMPSON

Charlie is everywhere armed with a broom and a ready smile. Closing his second year at this high school, he has become an unmistakeable figure among school personalities. Included in his duties are the post-auditorium program clean-up and backstage assistance during school and community activities.

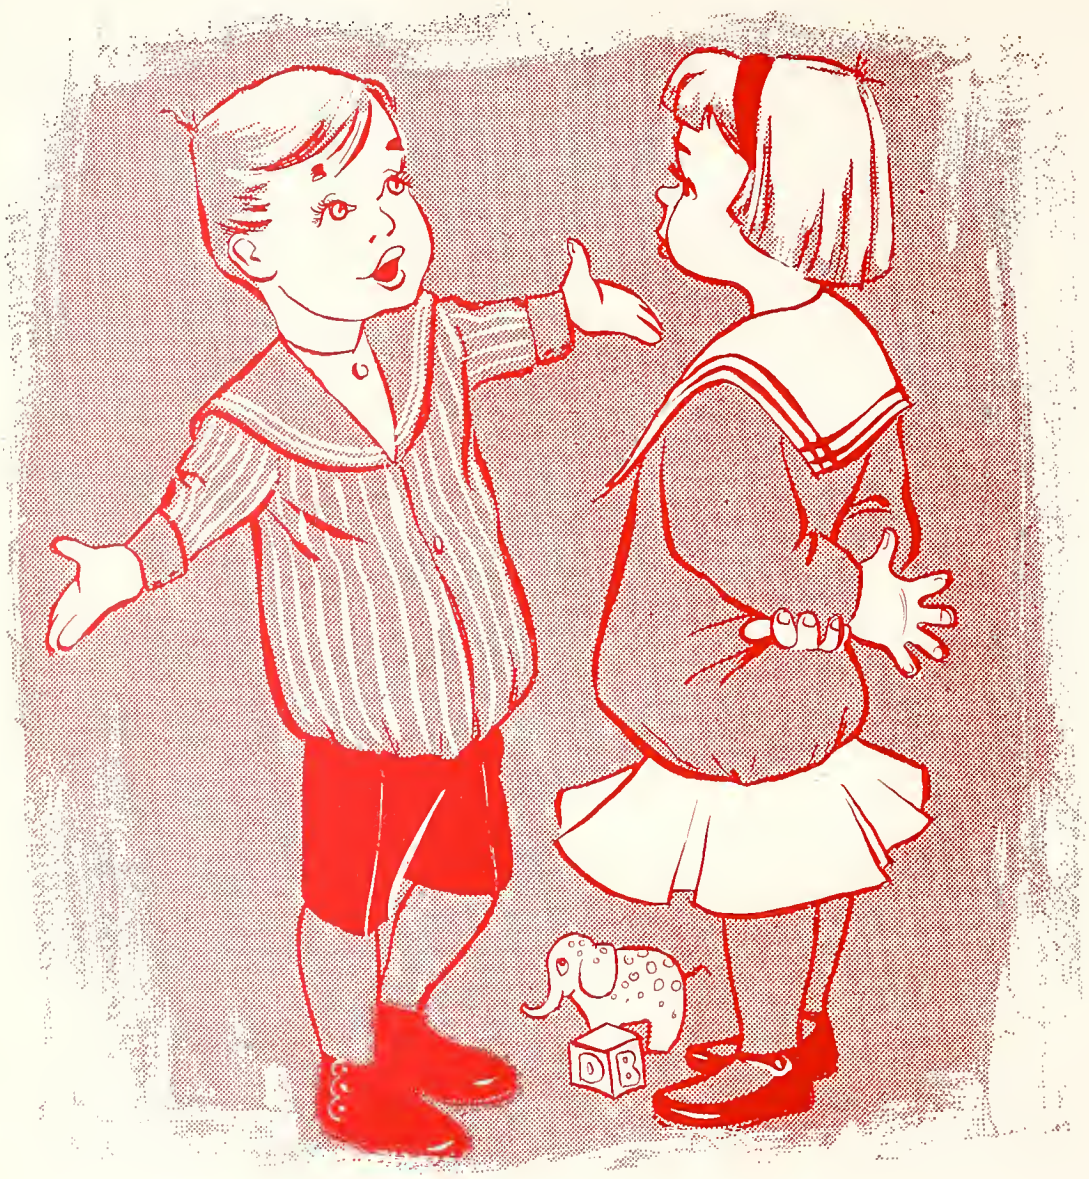


FRED CUSSEN

As chief custodian, Fred oversees all maintenance operations in and around the high school, ranging from light dusting to difficult stage work, through the school year. In Fred's words, the department appreciates the highly sympathic co-operation extended by the student body in regard to building maintenance.

EMERY PAUL

Huntington High's new addition has brought increased duties to the maintenance staff. In the system for nine years, Emery's new responsibilities deal mainly with the cleaning of the cafeteria and music department rooms. These facilities in the new addition have the use of a loading ramp and a freight elevator.



Classes

Although school buildings and teaching techniques change greatly through the years, the students remain much the same. Styles of dress, slang, fads, customs, and faces change; but the ideals, emotions, and modes of thinking differ very little with the passing of time. The traditions of our school today are a result of the efforts and activities of the classes that have gone before. It is our sincere hope that the future generations will find H. H. S. a little better, as a result of our efforts than we found it.

Guardians of Our Fate

Sponsors

The sponsors for the Senior Class of 1955 were Mrs. Beatrice Patterson and Mr. Hugh Brown; they served as advisors to the senior class both in the planning of senior activities as well as junior money making. Mrs. Patterson and Mr. Brown have very capably directed the class in the production of their senior play and in the plans for commencement. The entire class wishes to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for the efforts and abilities of these sponsors.

Officers

Soon after returning to school in September, the seniors of 1955 elected their officers. They were: Burton Carlson, president; Robert Paulen, vice-president; Raymond Hemphill, secretary; and Bernadine Burkholder, treasurer. These officers served a full school year. To these four seniors we owe the financial success of the class, the beautiful graduation and tremendous senior play. Working hand in hand with the sponsors, they have accepted their responsibility and have truly served well in their respective offices and deserve the appreciation of the senior class.

Freshmen Officers

The greenies, fresh from grade school, chose their officers early last fall. The officers are: James Stringfellow, president; James Webber, vice-president; Peggy Beebee, secretary, and Joyce Lockhart, treasurer. The freshman class spent the year getting acquainted with H. H. S. Most of the freshmen finished this year with a better understanding and appreciation of our school than when they began.

Activities

Our grandpappy's formal education consisted of reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic with extra-curricular activities which probably included frogs in the teacher's desk, pigtails in inkwells, and fishing on school time. Modern educators recognize the value of correctly organized and directed activities in teaching co-operative action and in stimulating interest in a variety of fields. This is an important step in the education of students as citizens of tomorrow.

Who hid the dummy?

BARBARA PETRUCELLE

Barbara Petrucelle, editor of the Modulus, kept the staff on their toes.

Barbara Knoll was the copy editor. Assisting her were David Repp, Judith Shutt, Susanne Schilling, Barbara Bailey, and Sue Akers.

Jodine Williams was assigned the job of compiling the index.

The financial status of the yearbook was kept in check by Karen Perry, business manager.

Steve Smith and his assistants, Bob Maybee and Jerin Juillerat were busily taking, developing and printing the pictures for the Modulus.

The advertising staff was composed of Janice Watrous, Tardy Briggs, Kay Stoffel, Joan Weiger, Carlson Becker, and Jacky Burton.

Joyce Fowerbaugh held the position of circulation manager.

Julie Ware, file clerk, endeavored to keep the files in order.

The sports features were compiled by Kent Owen and Walt Zahrt.

Mr. Moreland, our capable advisor, shouldered the problems of turning out the Modulus on time.

And when is this copy due?

Let's keep it; we might need it next year.

Miss Modulus, majesty reigns supreme

Concluding the premiere performance of the Revue, the spotlight fastened on Miss Norma Lockhart, the 1955 Miss Modulus. This honor was the result of many week's work by Miss Lockhart and her sellers who persistantly induced people, in great numbers, to attend the Modulus Revue.

Miss Lockhart has many other talents and hobbies besides super-salesmanship. She is a Swing-Inn officer and is active in numerous other organizations. We are proud to name her Miss Modulus of 1955.

Revue—Co-operative effort pays off.

On November 31 these efforts were rewarded by the applause, laughter, and appreciation of the audience. The 1955 Modulus Revue was presented three nights—November 31, December 1, and December 2. On each night the Queen, Norma Lockhart, with her attendants, Sallie Crews, Carolyn Drabenstot, and Sharon Clements, was presented and crowned.

Perhaps the best part of the Revue is the party after the last performance for all those connected with the production of the Revue. Thus ended the Modulus Revue for another year.

but naturally we'd think so.

Many weeks of preparation went into the production of the 1955 Modulus Revue. The waltz and can-can dance choruses practiced long hours under the direction of Mr. John Neff of Fort Wayne and with the aid of Mr. Moreland. Mr. John Escosa also of Fort Wayne, provided the piano accompaniment for these practice sessions. Mr. Day and the stage technicians worked to perfect lighting and curtain effects while the art classes painted backdrops and built scenery. The organ, piano, and bass ensemble with Mr. Slater at the organ prepared the musical accompaniment to the various portions of the Revue. Mr. Slater also directed the efforts of the choir in their contribution to the Revue. The many skits of this year's Revue were produced by members of Masque and Gavel and directed by Mrs. Patterson. Also going into the 1955 Revue were many individual acts including vocal solos, duets, and the girls' sextette under the direction of Mr. Slater. Among the piano numbers were a solo, a duet, and one unique performance which included four couples dancing on the stage.

While all these persons—cast, directors, and technicians—were working to produce the show, the candidates for Modulus Queen were working equally hard to sell tickets.

As opening night drew near, the tension mounted and the pace increased—more rehearsals, more practice, more work. As always, everyone connected with the Revue was attempting to produce the best Revue Huntington High has ever given.

Sally, Jack, Earl, Jackie, Barbara, Jim, and Dave

The last note on the organ is heard, the house lights dim, and the curtain goes up on the Senior Class production of "Gown of Glory." The date is March 29, 1955. As we look behind the scenes on this memorable occasion, we find the usual shaking knees and blank minds; but after the first few nervous moments, the cast settle down into their respective roles and the audience can forget that these characters are just kids next door or one of their class mates.

Gown of Glory—Smash Hit

The setting takes place at the turn of the century. As the plot unfolds, the audience is thoroughly entertained by the heart warming story of the trials and tribulations of a minister's family. Along with the serious drama there is enough comedy scattered throughout the performance to develop into a well-rounded play.

The Senior Play, as does anything that is really worth while, took a lot of work and sacrifice on the part of many. Our special thanks go to our class sponsors, Mr. Hugh Brown and Mrs. Wallace Patterson. Their untiring efforts and determination contributed a great deal to the success of the play. As we of the Class of "55" look back on "Gown of Glory," we can only say it was well worth the time and effort spent putting on the "greatest show on earth."

Queen Carolyn Rules

As the practice has been in past years, a Senior Queen was elected on the basis of ticket sales for the Senior Play. The class of 1955 was fortunate to have six young ladies striving for the honor of being Senior Queen. Many of us little realize the work and responsibility that is behind this title. Congratulations this year go to Miss Carolyn Webb, Senior Queen of 1955. Carolyn has been active in high school work as well as extra-curricular activities throughout her four years. Truly a fitting climax was her crowning as Senior Queen of 1955.

Queen and Court

Aided By Her Court

Out of the six candidates for Senior Queen, there can only be one winner. The success of a play can only be achieved by the co-operation of all of the candidates. Credit must also go to Bonnie Spotts, Norma Kidd, Nancy Trost, Marilyn Thompson, and Lois Warner for the time and effort they put forth to make our play successful.

Student Elected Mentors

Student Council

At the beginning of each school year, two members of each home room are chosen to be a part of the Student Council and represent their corresponding home rooms.

The officers this year were: president, Bob Paulen; vice-president, Carlson Becker; and secretary-treasurer, Paul Stewart.

Projects this year have included the selling of book covers and Viking pennants and the raising of money for the International Field Service program.

Francais Parle Ici

The French Club elected for its officers this year Jim Carlson, president; Julie Ware, vice-president, and Patricia Calder, secretary. Under the direction of Mrs. Hillegas, this organization meets once a month for a luncheon and program. Elgibility is gained by being either a past French student or studying for the second year. Band—Even in new quarters

DELMAR WEESNER

Glorying in its new quarters, another first class band has come into being under the direction of Mr. Delmar Weesner. The acoustics, lighting, and roominess of the music-room are an immeasurable improvement over the cramped surroundings of the old band room.

The band again added color and enjoyment to the football games with its precision marching and lilting music. Also, during our "Hoosier Madness" the colorful strains of band music could be heard above the roar of the crowd.

This year's band contest has been set for April 16. Our band, which won first division last year in both prepared and sight reading contests, is entering as Class B for schools of between 450 and 750 enrollment. This year's musical repertoire meets a characteristically high standard—such selections as "Stradella," "Wine, Women and Song," and "Toulon."

To round out the year's activities, an exchange concert with the Hartford City High School Band was made.

Choral Group's busy schedule,

CLOYDE SLATER

The Huntington High School Choir, under the able direction of Mr. Cloyde Slater, consists of 60 members. As the ability to read music is important, in most cases a year of preparation in the beginning chorus is mandatory.

Within the choir itself are ensembles: the girls' sextette consisting of; Bernadine Burkholder, Shirley Guthier, Lorraine Cheesman, Carol Schnitz, Carolyn Webb, and Loretta Hubley—the madrigal group composed of: Marilyn Thompson, John Drew, Carlson Becker, Don Myers, Wayne Powell, Carol McClurg, Jeanne Bealer, and Bonita Keith. The soloists for this school year have been John Drew, Carol Schnitz and Don Myers.

During the Yuletide Season, the choir visits the grade schools. During Holy Week they sing at the community's Good Friday services and also participate in the Sunrise Service on Easter Sunday. Besides their local activities, they journeyed to Fort Wayne North Side to give a concert.

The choir is certainly an organization of which all of Huntington may well be proud.

HALLOWEEN DANCE

The work of the Sunshine Society is seen in the everyday activities of Huntington High. Plans for the annual dances, the decorative May baskets, clever Easter eggs and Greenie Day initiation are just a part of the yearly achievements of this active group.

The organization is composed of all the girls of H. H. S. and is divided into various groups. These groups each have an adult advisor, a student leader, and various committees composed of the members.

M. M. S., headed by Julie Ware is limited to juniors and seniors only. Mr. Lowell Buzzard, whose untiring efforts have made this year's M. M. S. a success, is the adult advisor. Gales and Big & Little Sisters, under the capable supervision of Miss Alice Kline; the Social Service Sunbeams, under the guidance of Miss Emma Kline; and the Mary White Guild, under the direction of Mrs. Marie Porter, helped to convey the sunshine of the society.

Educational Station WVSH is fast becoming an integral part of our school life. The past year has been an eventful one because of the increase in facilities due to the building of the new addition. These include the main control room with the new console and transmitter, the main studio which is large enough to accommodate a class of students and a grand piano of which we are very proud, and a smaller studio and control room.

The radio workshop classes are housed directly across the hall from the studio for the convenience of the students. In addition, WVSH can claim an audition room along with a library of transcriptions, tape recordings, and records. A new and precise method of record filing has been developed in the past year; now it is necessary for the student to pass a special test before he can use any records in the library.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Wallace Patterson, the live programs are developed with an appeal for all ages. Mr. M. McCabe Day handles the technical aspect of the station. Congratulations to Mrs. Patterson and "Pop" for making our dream station a reality and one of the most outstanding educational stations in the country.

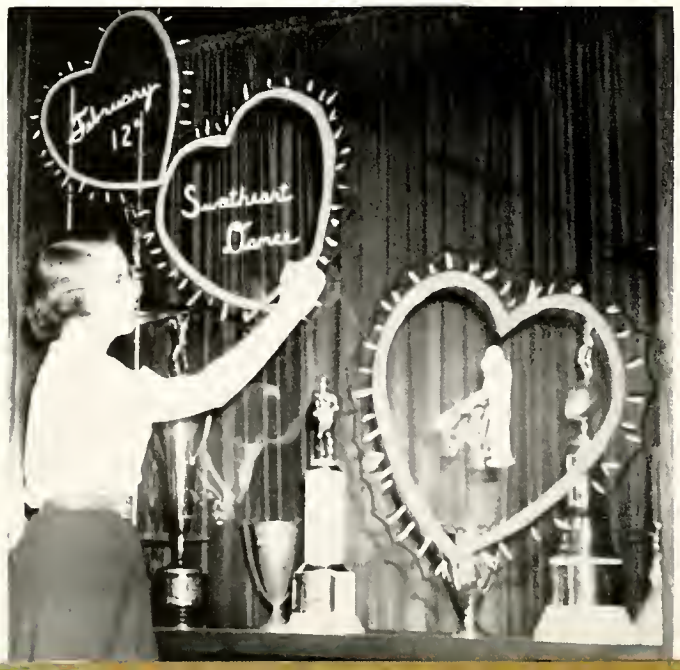
Sweetheart dance lamour, toujour,



Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet came to life once again on February 12th, 1955. The Masonic Temple, transformed into Capulet's gardon, was filled with the melodious music of Jimmy Stier and his orchestra.

The traditional journey through the heart was the high point of the evening. Upon crossing the threshold, each couple was presented a pink or white heart by Mr. Denny Eckert and Miss Becky Williams.

Julie Ware, general chairman of the Sweetheart Dance, Nancy Weesner, co-general chairman, Mr. Lowell Buzzard and Miss Alice Kline, faculty advisors, were present for the largest dance of the year.

The three hours of enchantment were ended at 12:00 when the Sweetheart Dance of 1955 became history.

CHAPERONES

These words: "Reception given in honor of the Class of 1954 by the Class of 1955, Thursday evening, May twenty-seventh, Masonic Temple," were the keystone of an evening that will long be remembered by all who attended the Junior-Senior Reception. Life-size caricatures covered the walls depicting the Mother Goose theme, as blue and silver balloons, the colors of the class of 1954, adorned the ceiling of the banquet hall.

The committee chairmen: Program, Julie Ware; Dance, Barbara Bailey; Prophecy, Barbara Petrucelle; Dinner, Bill Keith; Decoration, Barbara Knoll; and Invitation, Jodine Williams, were proud that their efforts had culminated in such a successful manner.

The toastmaster, Jim Carlson, was in charge of the program which consisted of the Invocation by Bob Paulen; Welcome, Mike Arlington; the Response, Bud Stringfellow; the Prophecy was read by Barbara Petrucelle and Barbara Bailey; and the reading of the Will by Eleanor Carlson and Stephen Moon. Following the reading of the Will, Jim Carlson presented Mr. Pruth McFarlin and his accompanist, Miss Sara Hedrick. Mr. McFarlin sang a large selection of numbers to a very appreciative audience.

Be our guest, for tonight

MRS. PATTERSON

MR. BROWN

The class advisors, Mrs. Everett Hillegas and Mr. Edward Burke were presented with gifts after the program. Mrs. Hillegas received a portable electric sewing machine and Mr. Burke was given a boat in appreciation of their work. The Class of 1955 presented to Mrs. Patterson and Mr. Brown an electric fry-pan and a leather chair, respectively.

The Seniors were quiet and reviewed the last four year's events, while the Juniors were looking forward to the year to come. Nevertheless, the 1954 Junior-Senior Reception will be an important link in the lives of all who attended.

Masque & Gavel

By their words you shall know them.

In 1941 Mrs. Patterson, our able sponsor, formed the first Masque and Gaven Club for students interested in speech. The organization was very successful, and this year the officers were: Sally Weyler, president; Barbara Knoll, vice-president, and Jodine Williams, secretary. Besides meeting every second and fourth Mondays the members have given plays for civic groups, presented the religious programs, and taken charge of announcements. Huntington High was represented by Sally Weyler and Jim Carlson on Junior Town Meeting when it was presented for State Teachers' Association. A merry time was had by the bus load that went to the Purdue Speech Conference. To climax this year the local group was host to the District Speech Contest.

Speech Conference Awards

Judy Shutt, Kent Owen, Sally Weyler and Susanne Schilling won awards at the Purdue Speech Conference. Congratulations, kids!

Officers

The announcement committee for this morning just happens to be the Masque and Gavel officers. Sally Weyler is president, Barbara Knoll, vice-president, and Jodine Williams, secretary.

Jr. Town Meeting

Lorraine Cheeseman, Sally Weyler, Jim Carlson, Kent Owen and Dick Frederick were speakers on Jr. Town Meeting this year.

Honor Societies

Those who can, do.

Senior Honor Society

The members of the Senior Honor Society for each senior class are selected on three basis —scholastic standing, student vote, and teacher vote. Thus the upper 15 per cent of the graduating class is represented by the Senior Honor Society.

Junior Honor Society

The Junior Honor Society is composed of students from the upper 5 per cent of the Junior Class. The percentage is determined by the scholastic standing, plus student and teacher vote. Members this year consisted of Paul Stewart, Susanne Schilling, Saralee Allen, Kent Owen, Joan Burkhart, Ann Myers and Sarah Miller.

Each year these members are guests for the Senior Honor Society at their breakfast which is an annual event given in honor of the Junior Society.

Counciling, Attendance, Guidance

Where have you been? Where are you going?

Mrs. Hillegas, Mr. Burke, Miss Kline, and Mr. Diffenbaugh served as Counselors for each of the classes. They assist the students concerning their academic problems throughout their high school careers.

Aiding the Guidance Department this year were Richard Brandt, Dick Mitchell, Phyllis Van Dine, Susanne Farrar, Eva Nell Rash, Linda Miller, Pamela Weber, and Susanne Schilling.

Mr. Gerdes, as Dean of Boys, and Mrs. Porter, the Dean of Girls, headed the Guidance Department. They assumed the school's attendance duties, vocational testing, and other related matters.

International Students

There is some corner of a foreign field . . .

The American Field Service enables European students to study in the U. S.; during the summer U. S. students then visit Europe.

Representing Europe this year was Patricia Calder of Hereford, England. Bob Paulen, our 1954 student to go to Europe, lived in Flensburg in Northern Germany.

BOB

In Huntington the principal job of the American Field Service Committee has been the handling of student's applications for summer scholarships, the raising of $650 for next year's exchange student, and the applications for exchange student's home. The committee consists of Miss Luther, Committee; Mrs. Porter, Dean of Girls; Mrs. Farrar, P. T. A. President; Mrs. Lockhart; Mr. Johnson, Principal; Rev. Paulen, Civic Representative; Patricia Calder, Foreign Representative. Robert Paulen, president; Carlson Becker, treasurer; Bernadine Burkholder, secretary; represent the Student Council in this group.

G. A. A.

Distaff competion is keen

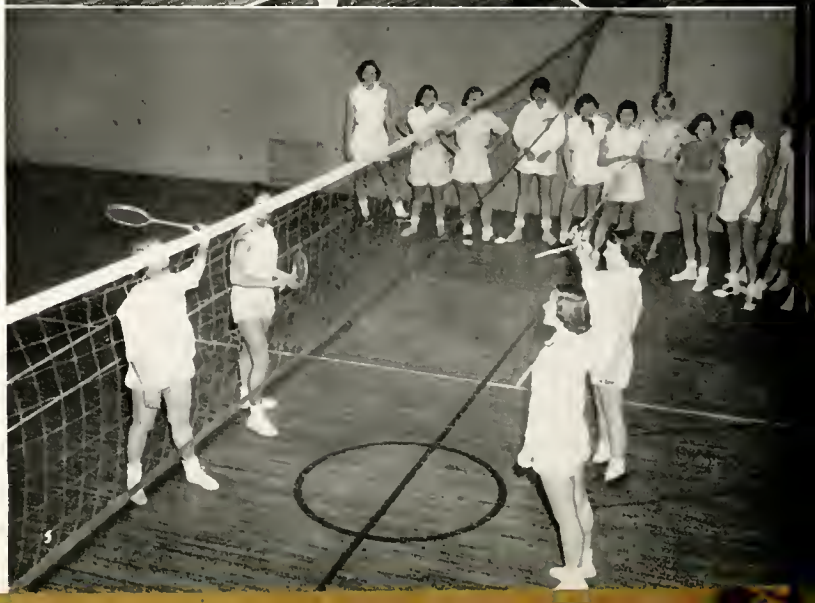
The Girls' Athletic Association was led this past year by the very apt Bonnie Spotts, president; Catherine Hunnicutt, vice-president; Marna Emley, secretary, and Dorothy Wendell, treasurer. The sponsor of the association was the girls' athletic director, Miss Ruth Luther. Marna Emley and Bonnie Spotts also attended the State G. A. A. Leadership Training Camp.

The first outstanding event was the six day trip to Washington D. C. and New York. Here they visited many historic spots such as the United Nations Building. The group took a trip to Holland, Michigan for the Tulip Festival, May 11.

The G. A. A. banquet was held May 2. The speaker, Mrs. Harry Hogan, spoke on "High Lights Around the World."

As fund raising activities the G. A. A. members sold Viking sweat shirts, basketball and football pins, and cards.

The main activities in the school were volleyball, archery, basketball, swimming, and bowling.



Junior Rotary—Shop Foreman

Few are chosen

Each school month, a senior boy is chosen by Mr. Watson to attend meetings of the Rotary Club and act as Junior Rotarian for that month. Character, personality, and citizenship are the necessary traits. The members and respective months for which they were chosen are: September, Bob Paulen; October, Ray Hemphill; November, Jack Drew; December, Carlson Becker; January, Jim Carlson; February, Steve Smith; March, Earl Landrum; April, Richard Fredericks, and May, Walt Zahrt.

Right-hand men

The foremen are chosen by Mr. Burke each month on the basis of grades and personality. To be eligible, they must be seniors and able to help Mr. Burke at anytime. The boys attend the Foremen's Dinner on the third Thursday of each month.

This year they were: Kenneth Weinley, Raymond Hemphill, Richard Miller, Orville Ramsey, and John Wygant. The assistants were: Terry DeLegrange, Wayne Humphry, Steve Olinger, Kent Knight, Jerry Gerrard, and Meredith Brown.

Clubs Mirror Varied Interests

F. T. A.

With their motto, "Students of Today are the Teachers of Tomorrow" in mind, F. T. A. had a very active year, meeting on the first and third Thursdays of each month. The Future Teachers of America elected as their officers: Jodine Williams, president; Barbara Knoll, vice-president; Bob Paulen, secretary-treasurer, and Barbara Bailey, librarian. Mr. Day and Miss Wilson as Sponsors were invaluable in helping them get better acquainted with the teaching profession.

F. N. A.

The Future Nurses of America is an organization composed of those girls interested in nursing. This year the officers were: president, Pamela Weber; vice-president, Joan Burkhart; secretary, Bonnie Spots; treasurer, Janelle Burkhart, and sponsor, Miss Shirley Earhart.

The group meets twice a month: a luncheon meeting at school and a meeting at one of the girls' homes in the evening. Cheer visiting at hospitals is also a part of their program.

Biology

The Biology Club organized by Mr. Hummer and Mr. Ware held its meeting on the third Thursday of every month. This organization is for students with a B average in biology, wanting knowledge in this field.

The club, under the leadership of Tom Hummer, Dave Repp, Phyllis Van Dine, and Bonnie Spotts, took its annual trip to Notre Dame and Chicago to conclude an eventful year of many interesting meetings.

of the Student Body at Large.

H-Club

The "H" Club is an organized club made up of boys who have won at least one major letter in one of the three major sports—football, basketball, and track.

The club annually sponsors the Old Vikes-New Vikes game which concludes the basketball season.

This year's officers were Dick Frederick, president; John Lind, vice-president; Bob Paulen, secretary, and Ray Hemphill, treasurer.

Booster

The Booster Club, an organization for the encouragement of school spirit, held its monthly meetings with president, Earl Landrum; vice-president, Gene Hensel, and secretary, Dick Frederick presiding. Their able sponsor Mr. Moreland was very helpful in obtaining buses for out-of-town football and basketball games, having programs printed for games held here, and organizing the freshman initiation.

Actuariae

Actuariae is an organization composed of student library assistants sponsored by Miss Carolyn Reynolds.

The officers this year were president, Norma Jeane Kidd; vice-president, Marlene Gearhart, and secretary-treasurer, Sue Thompson.

The social activities of Actuariae included a Christmas party, caroling, and the annual Mother-Daughter Tea in May. The Actuariae members also have charge of the bulletin board in the library and decorate it each month.

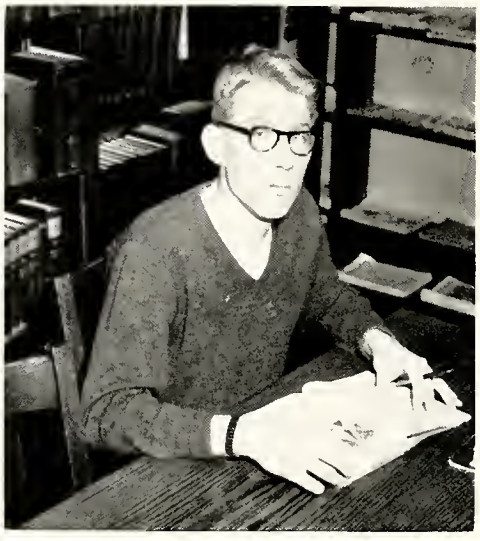
Valedictorian

Transferring here from Marion for her junior and senior years, Judy Shutt has recorded a perfect academic history. Active not only in scholastic activities, she has taken part in the Senior Play, the Modulus Revue, the state speech contest, and many other school organizations. We are very proud to have such a capable valedictorian.



Salutatorian

Jim Carlson, this year's salutatorian, aside from being an honor student, engaged in many other activities. He had the leading role in the Senior Play, played varsity basketball and football, and was class president. He served also as Junior Rotarian. A true representative is "Rev. David Lyall."

K. B. J.

The upper 5% of the senior class, determined fully by scholastic achievement, receives the honor of being named to Kiwanis Builds Forever. These students are invited to attend a dinner in their honor given by the Kiwanis Club. Since the award is based entirely on scholarship, it encourages all students to try for greater accomplishments. Those winning this year are seated; Barbara Petrucella, Barbara Knoll, and Judy Shutt. Standing are; Jim Carlson, Nancy Sands, and Bob Paulen.

Audio Visual

Seeing is learning

"Pop, the film has broken. What should I do now?" This has been heard in Mr. "Pop" Day's office more than once this year. Immediately he goes running down the corridor to 212 to patch the torn film.

One of the phases of education is that of audio-visual. The period supervisors and twenty other boys under the direction of Mr. McCabe Day have completed another successful year working at the projector as well as helping out on the stage.

This year secretaries have helped out in Pop's office trying to keep files straight and the other thousand and one things that help Mr. Day tremendously.

Our thanks go to them for making possible the viewing of the educational films which were appreciated by everyone and for their help behind the curtains.

Sports

The schoolmasters of long ago had their hands full trying to stimulate a little interest in mental development without bothering about physical development. Today we place a great deal of emphasis on this portion of our education in the form of competative contests. These sports are for the purpose of promoting sportsmanship, co-operation, and a healthy well-trained body. The athletic program provides an opportunity for a boy to develop not only a healthy body but also a skill in one or more fields of athletic endeavor.

Football more than a game—

The 1954 football Vikings finished their nine game slate, compiling a 3-5-1 record. Hampered by sluggish 1st half performances, the Norsemen dropped games to Marion, Warsaw, Hartford City, Plymouth, and Fort Wayne Central. Inspired outings against C. I. C. foes Wabash, Rochester, and Peru ranked Huntington at the .500 mark in the conference standings. In the one tie game, the Vikes fought Columbia City to a standstill.

After last year's graduation thinned the Norse squad, the experienced seniors led the way in filling the vacated backfield and line slots. Prospecting for next year's varsity hopefuls, Coaches Williams and Naab were favorably impressed with the improved underclassmen. Rebuilding plans were under way with the soph-junior crew supplying evidence of a balanced passing attack and ground game.

Aggressive Norse line-play in conference contests spelled upset for higher ranked foes. Although the Vikes failed to break even in their schedule, their scoring potential kept them highly-regarded in football circles.

Coach, team, breaks,

As it is many times, it is the people behind the scenes that really deserve the credit. It's up to the student manager to see that all games and practice equipment is ready for use when it is needed. The student manager must be a combination doctor, supply clerk, chaplain, and chinese laundry boy. He has to tape ankles, and to see that all equipment is clean. Above all he must have patience. Freshmen managers were: John Bell, head manager; Larry Baker, Rex Baker, Dave Wiegardener, and Larry Barrie. For the Scyldings: Dave Gerdes, head manager; Richard Simon, Marvin Janetzke, and Bill Coates. Steve Olinger was manager for the Vikings.

combine to spell success.

Not unfamiliar to all conferences and all state honors, the Vikings placed four seniors in the gridiron limelight this season. Bob Paulen received state honorable mentions in the U.P., A. P., and Heye Clarke polls and was awarded the right-half slot in the all C. I. C. team. The United Press also listed end Jim Carlson in the honorable mention column. Carlson and tackle Ray Hemphill were honored by conference writers with positions on the 1st and 2nd C. I. C. teams respectively. This year's most valuable Vike was scoring leader, John Lind, who served as honorary co-captain with backfield mate, Paulen.

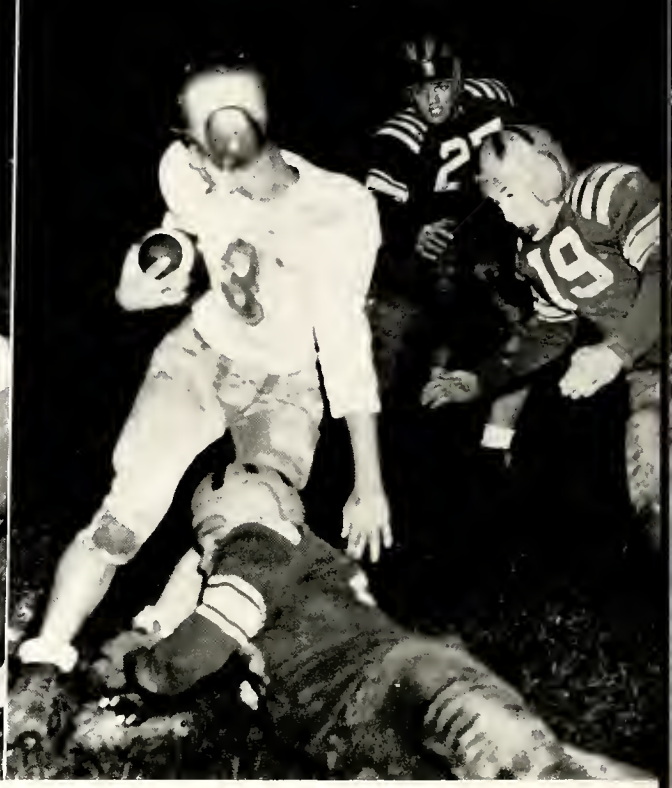
NOPE—MUSEN'T TOUCH



ALLOW ME

Vikes' record speaks for itself.

Season statistics showed the Vikes offensively stymied in the first half of play. Grinding out yardage in the 3rd and 4th quarters, the Norsemen picked up needed points after halftime.

Defeated 0-21 in their opener at Marion, the Norsemen pulled all the stops for a 32-0 victory over Wabash. Warsaw's well manned single wing meant set-back for the Vikes by a 13-35 score. In a squeaker Hartford City downed the Williamsmen 6-7, followed by a 6-6 tie score at Columbia City. Huntington went on to defeat conference foes Rochester (15-0) and Peru (14-6) under sloppy weather conditions, dropping final games to Plymouth and Fort Wayne Central, the Vikes closed out the season with 3 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie.

Alternately hot and cold during the fall, the Norsemen proved unpredictable in both victory and defeat. Excellent jaunting, a better-than average running attack, and an often potent forward wall gained the Vikings much respect in the C. I. C. Sometimes inadequate in the defensive and passing departments, the Norsemen reeled off brilliant plays under pressure to help balance the books.

Particularly pleasing to Coach Williams was the 32-0 whitewashing of Wabash, last year's perfect record spoilers. The Vikes also gained ample revenge for last year's tie score with Rochester by shutting-out the Zebras 15-0 in a sea of mud.

Streamlining their running game, the Vikes attracted a flanker to their straight "T" formation and balanced the line with ends slightly split. This flexible alignment added pass protection and gave quicker starts for line plunges. Encountering varied offensive set-ups, the Norsemen used an assortment of defensive tactics, holding the opposition in check.

The "54" Vikings posted a 3-5-1 record, finished midway in the conference standings, and showed remarkable improvement in rebuilding for next season.

Good season bodes well for the future.

The Freshmen grunted and groaned their way to an impressive 4-2 record during the 1954-55 season. The "greenies" wearing Viking colors for the first time, outscored their opponents by 12 points, 82-70. Wins came over Peru, 14-0; Wabash, 27-12; Warsaw, 14-7; and Wabash again 13-7. Marion nipped them 14-7, while Central's Tigers dumped them 40-7.

Spirit and determination sparked them throughout the season. A hard running backfield, well balanced line, and reserve depth were responsible for their ability to gain ground. The Freshmen joined with the Sophomores to play Hartford City; the young Vikings came out on the short end of the score, 14-12; however the gridiron future for Huntington High School looks bright for the next three years.

"Tote that barge, lift that bale!"

Doc Seely, the friendly man.

'54 season is hectic,

Huntington, situated in an area exposed to "Hoosier Madness," did not escape in 1955. Like surrounding victims, she too succumbed to basketball fever. A usually peaceful town, Huntington from November to February was torn asunder with friendly rivalry. Not only are the symptoms passed through the school system, but also attack adults as well. Very few can evade the contagious breath of the "Spirit of the Vikings." We are very proud of the exploits of our team, the people behind the scenes, and future teams in training. Basketball is an integral part of our athletic program; it encourages perfection, competition, and good health. For these reasons it must be included if this is to be a story of the life at present day Huntington High School.

Coach

LOU WATSON

UP IN THE AIR JUNIOR BIRD MEN.

WHERE ELSE COULD IT HAVE GONE?

Norsemen emerge undaunted.

Nine managers kept the three Huntington High School teams in good shape this year. Freshman managers were: John Bell, Larry Baker, Rex Baker, and Dave Winegardener. Handling the Scyldings: Marvin Janetzke, Dick Simon, and Dave Gerdes. Steve Ollinger and Bill Coats looked after the Viking equipment.

Most of us think of the managers checking out equipment, which they do, but more than this they are morale builders. The attitude of these few can have much to do in determining how a team thinks. Let's give three cheers to the guys that work behind the scenes. A real hand for the student managers.

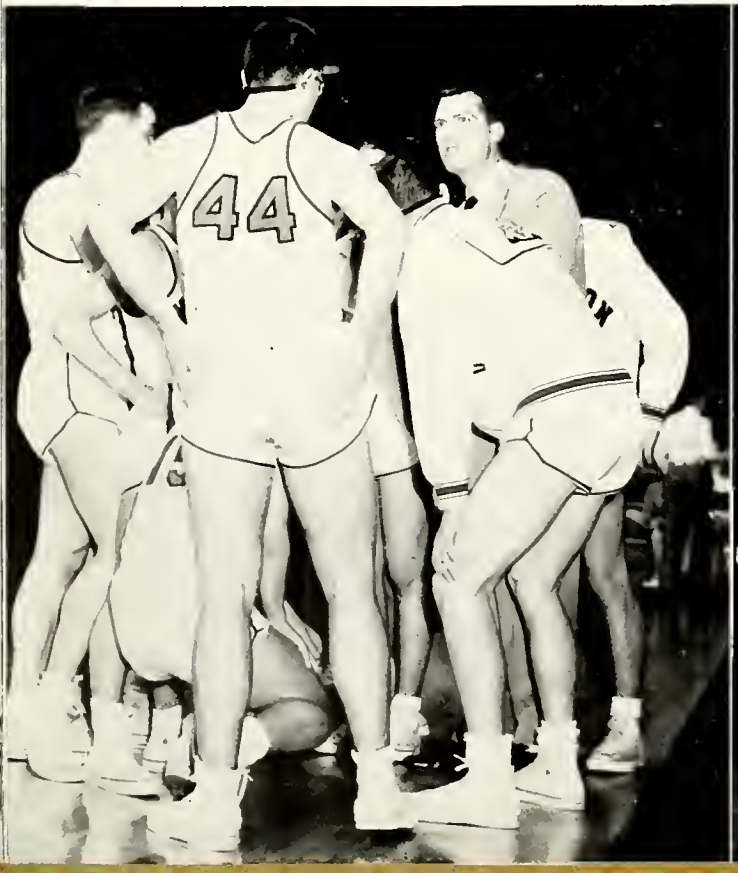
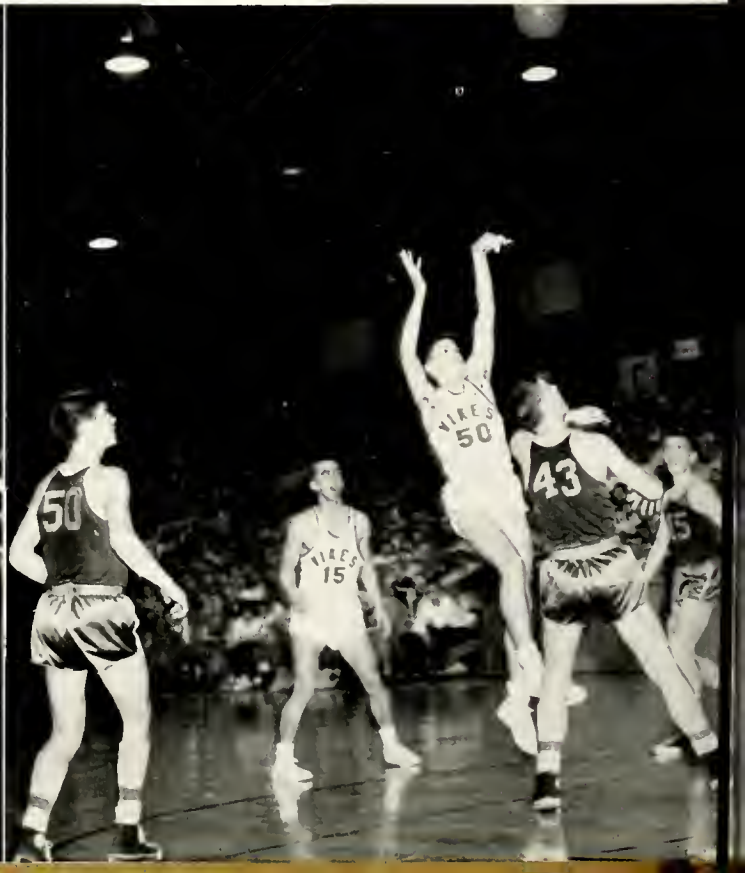
What's the matter out there?

Dance Ballerina Dance.





On that we'll stand.

Bob Paulen, a senior this year, completed his second year as a Viking. His speed was a valuable asset. Jim Carlson, known as "Bongo," saw his action at forward and center. His height will be missed next year. Raymond Hemphill, seeing a lot of action near the end of the season, used his height to excellent advantage. Ray is a senior. John Hicks played center throughout the year. John gives us hopes of better days in the future. He is one of the five juniors. Kenny Law was used at forward and center this year. His "keen physique" will be seen a lot next year. Jack Flaughter, another junior, will see much action as a guard where he played this year. Art Musselman, playing the last half of the season boosted the Vikes a lot. Kent Knight or "Smiley," as the last member of the junior clan, saw his action as guard. Ronnie Foor, frequently called "Foo," is only a sophomore, but he used his speed and ball handling to superb advantage. Dick Chalfant is another sophomore who will be in the line up next year. He is a forward. Dick Mitchell's ball control made him a handy guy to have around. Dick is the third of the four sophomores. Larry Handwork, in his position at forward, wants to show his big brother that he is not a copy cat.

The "big three," Bob Paulen, Ray Hemphill, and Jim Carlson, comprise the unusually small graduating group of seniors. Ten men were lost in football so there is quite a difference.

None of the three saw regular action, but all played at different times throughout the year. All started games early in the year, but they were pushed back by the underclassmen. Then again near the end of the season they started to see action. Don't let this mislead you, however; because all provided much in the team effort. Good luck in the future, Old Vikes.

Make this one count.

Up up and away.

The Scyldings showed power and determination by pushing their way to an 8-12 season. All will be viewing for positions on the Vikes next year, however the going will be rough. There was a lot of height in Charlie Johnson, Lynn Steel, Walt Hunnicutt and Mark Floyd. The regular back-court men were Bill Mitchell, Jack Weller, Gene Hensel, and Tom Hummer. Scott Hosler and Jim Myers contributed much to the future Viking fund.

Play throughout the year showed a marked improvement in many of the players; one, Jack Flaugher, who started with the Scyds, made the Viking rooster.

With only three spaces on the Vikes left vacant by the graduating seniors, the competition for a berth will be extremely rugged. Good luck to all as individuals and to the team as a group. Indianapolis, here we come!

Our hope for years to come.

At the start of the year, it looked as if the freshman team might complete the year with an undefeated record; but some of the steam went through the whistle and they ran down. The "greenies" ended up with a 9-1 record including the tournament in which they participated. As it turned out, they were the only Huntington High School basketball team to break the .500 mark.

Playing on the freshman team were; Ron Chapin, Jim Stringfellow, Hubert Tackett, Jim Weber, Tom Sands, Ken Buzzard, John Stell, Doug Watkins, J. D. Hill, Benny Bowen, Ned Solloway, Bob Johnson, and Ned Sheinfield. Jim Smith and Devon Bair were picked for the last two games.

Some of these fellows showed they were out for spots of the Viking line up. This would mean passing the Scylding rank which is a difficult task, but it was done by three sophomores this year. Scylding coach, Oscar Naab, will probably be shaking hands with Freshman coach, Dale Ware, for his excellent job with the boys early in November.

Frosh cheer

Carolee Atkinson, Bonnie Caley, and Rose Kelsey, the freshmen cheer leaders, did a grand job of cheering the freshmen team on to nine victories. Two of the girls wore red corduroy skirts and black V-neck sweaters, and the other two wore black skirts and red sweaters. Their cheering showed the frosh team that their efforts with the round sphere weren't futile.

Scylding cheer

The three peppy young ladies who always were early arrivals at the basketball games were the Scylding yell leaders. Even though the cheering block was not always complete, one could never miss hearing the Scylding backers cheering those future Vikes on to victory. Dressed in reversible red and black corduroy skirts with black sweaters and collars to match their skirts, Jean Ann Biehl, Charlotte Gressley, and Jackie Tackett provided the enthusiasm for the Scylding ball games.

Varsity cheer

Our school spirit was a result of the work and enthusiasm of the Viking yell leaders. Much of their time and effort went into organizing a cheering block which can only be described as the best ever. The block, as in previous years, wore the familiar red and black shirts while the yell leaders were attired in red sweaters and black jumpers. Together, they made a very colorful sight; one that will long remain in our memories of high-school days. We gratefully thank Joan Weiger, Sally Perrin, and Linda Miller.

Track thinlies make impressive record.

When you see some of the Huntington High School athletes running down the street or from class to class, there isn't any fire; they are just trying to keep in shape for track. This year three track veterans—Bob Paulen, Dick Fredrick, and Ray Hemphill—will be running up points for the Norsemen. Paulen and Charles Johnson will be leading the hurdle events while Dick Fredrick will run the mile. Huntington will stake its chances in the shot-put on John Drew and Ray Hemphill. John Hicks, Jerry Dolby, Art Musselman, Dick Chalfant and Kenny Law will hold down the 440 yard dash and Paulen and Chalfant will run the 220. Wayne Humphrey and Ronnie Foor will represent the Vikings in the broad jump and Hicks will wear the red and black in the high jump. Tom Hummer and Lee Baker will carry the responsibility of victory in the pole vault. The Norsemen's strongest will be the mile run by Hicks, Chalfant, Dolby, Law and Musselman. Under the efficient coaching of Bill Williams, assisted by Oscar Naab, the 1955 track squad should go far.

WE WON!

UP AND OVER!

Old marks go by the board.
